

School Team Bulletin

Volume 7 Issue 4

October 23, 2013

Please disseminate to all teachers and post by the sign in book

Ed May Social Justice Grants 2013-14

Individuals or groups of teachers may apply for Ed May grants of up to $2000 for school-based social justice projects.

Application forms MUST be signed by the applicant and the local president. Please make sure you include the evaluation page that incorporates an analysis of your project using the social justice lens.

Information and application forms are available online at: <http://tinyurl.com/17sn8uf>

Criteria

Here is the abbreviated version:

- may be classroom or school-based, or may involve the community and school
- can be a current or new initiative
- funds may be used for release time, materials, publicity, communication, coalition building
- funds may not be used for travel, overseas projects, professional development, purchase of food or school hardware (computers, furniture, etc.)
- a budget must be included with the proposal.

Priority will be given to projects that

- are new rather than repeat proposals
- are innovative
- actively involve students
- have major impact on learners
- are collaborative (with funding from other sources)
- address all quadrants of the social justice lens.

The BCTF receives many applications each year; therefore, attaching additional information about the scope of the project to the online form/application is very helpful.

APPLICATION DEADLINE is November 25th at 5pm

Applications are NOT accepted via e-mail.
Please mail or fax your application to:

Social Justice Department
B.C. Teachers' Federation
#100-550 West 6th Avenue
Vancouver, B.C. V5Z 4P2

Fax: 604-871-2286

Applications will be reviewed in December.
All applicants will be informed of the decision in writing by January 17, 2014.

For further information, please contact:
Kathy Hartman, 604-871-1842
khartman@bctf.ca